Dec. 9. by gabeemoon. Reading One day of life by Manlio Argueta was an intense experience. The book, through the characters experiences, was able to evoke emotions in me that the characters themselves probably had, but, in order to protect themselves, had to hide. The book goes through one particular day in Guadalupe Guardado's (Lupe) life, but throughout this day she recounts parts of her life, depicting how things have been since she was a child.
